Dear Friend and Business Owner:

Life is all we have and a healthy one is to be cherished and nurtured. Amanda Seabeck, the seven-year-old daughter of a Washington Twp. police officer, was diagnosed with a malignant brain tumor this past May and has undergone treatment for this illness. Many more treatments will be needed. I am helping the Washington Twp. PBA 301 and the Hackettstown PBA 369 to host a benefit children's kata tournament to help defray some of the costs for treatment. The date of the event is Saturday, October 19, 2013. The location is at the Long Valley Middle School, 51 West Mill Road, Long Valley, NJ 07853. The event will start at 10:15 A.M. Please try to join us during the day.

I lost my mother to cancer after many years of treatment and courageous living. As she often did more for others than for herself, I have conducted a benefit tournament for local charities since 1986 to honor her memory and give back to our community.

We are creating a sponsor booklet to aid our desire to raise money for needed medical treatments. All proceeds are tax deductible and checks should be written to: "Washington Twp. PBA 301 / Good & Welfare".

All sponsorships should be mailed to by Friday, October 4, 2013:
